

NETIVOT HATORAH BOARD OF DIRECTORS

DANIELLA GREENSPAN
PRESIDENT

ADIR KOSCHITZKY
VICE PRESIDENT

STEVE FRENKIEL
TREASURER

ADAM ZAREK
SECRETARY

RENA MARKUS
CHAIR

DIDI ROSENZWEIG
PA PRESIDENT

LIANN GRANOVSKY
PAST PRESIDENT

DIRECTORS:

NOAH DIAMOND
LORI DISENHOUSE
DEENA EIZICOVICS
IMMANUEL GREENBERG
MOSHE GRUNFELD
SARA GUTENBERG
AIMEE HASS
JENNIE KELLERSTEIN
MICHAEL LIPSON
RAYNA ROSENZWEIG
REBECCA SALMON
NOAH TURK

NETIVOT HATORAH
נתיבות התורה

TORAH. ISRAEL. DERECH ERETZ.

BIOS

Noah Diamond

Noah is currently the President of Leda Health Innovations Inc, a wholesale & distribution company with customers across North America. An alumnus of Netivot, he studied at Or Chaim, Yeshivat HaKotel and holds a Bachelor's of Commerce from York University. He has served as a co-chair of Netivot's Development Committee which oversees many of Netivot's fundraising initiatives. He and his wife, Tali, have 3 daughters: Ella, Ava (grade 2) & Lyla (JK) and live in the Clanton Park neighbourhood.

Lori Disenhouse

Lori served on the board of Tanenbaum CHAT where, in addition to heading many committees, she was Chair of the Board and President. Lori also sat on the board of AHS where she was involved in strategic planning. More recently, Lori served as Chair of the Board of Shaarei Shomayim and co-chaired Shaarei Shomayim's Senior Rabbi Search Committee. Lori works in the refugee law field and is senior counsel at the Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada. She is married to Sheldon Disenhouse and currently they have 4 grandchildren at Netivot.

Deena Eizicovics

Deena has been a Netivot parent and volunteer since 2009. She and her husband Yaakov are proud parents of Aviva and Noam (graduates) and of Ronny (grade 6) and Solly (grade 2).

Deena was president of the Parents' Association from 2018-2020, co-chaired the "Gathered Around the Screens" zoom programming for Netivot families in 2020/2021, and has served on the Community Building, PR, South Campus, and Nominations Committees. She volunteers as a Co-Chair of the Parents Committee of Bnei Akiva of Toronto, assists with event planning for Canadian Friends of Shalva, and for the BAS/IKO Golf Tournament.

Steve Frenkiel

Steve is currently the President of Dynamic Connections, a Third Party Logistics Company offering transportation and warehousing services to clients across the country. Steve acquired the Company after having spent almost 10 years working in Private Equity with The Clairvest Group Inc. Prior to that Steve worked in consulting for Deloitte. Steve holds a B.Eng. in Electrical Engineering from McGill University and an MBA from Harvard Business School. In terms of community involvement, Steve is a graduate of the UJA Joshua institute, is a current committee member of The Julia and Henry Koschitzky Centre for Jewish Education, and co-chairs Development at Netivot. Steve is married to Lori Frenkiel and together they have three children ages 9, 7 and 5 that all attend Netivot, and they live in the Clanton Park area.

BIOS

Liann Granovsky

Liann Granovsky holds a BA in Economics from York University and an MBA in Finance from Carnegie Mellon University (CMU). Currently, she is a Managing Director at INQUIS Clinical Research Ltd. Prior to joining INQUIS, Liann gained extensive experience in finance and operations. Liann also sits on the board of her family business in Toronto. In her community engagement Liann is the incoming committee chair for The Centre for Jewish Education and past-president of Netivot Hatorah. She is married to Dan Rabinovitch, and together they have five children, all of whom attended Netivot. Liann and Dan reside in the Clanton Park neighbourhood and are active members of the Or Chaim community.

Immanuel Greenberg

Immanuel is married to Gemma Greenberg. They have three children in Netivot and one in Or Chaim, between the ages of 5 and 14 years old. Immanuel is Chair of the Netivot Facilities Committee and has served on the Netivot Lottery Committee. Working in a local property management firm, Signet Group, Immanuel has been involved in real estate management and development for over 15 years. Immanuel also sits on the Camp Moshava Site Committee, Clanton Park Shul Construction Committee, and is a member of the Eglinton Crosstown Construction Liaison Committee and Customer Advisory Panel with Toronto Hydro.

Daniella Greenspan

Daniella graduated from Netivot ('00) and thereafter attended Sy Syms School of Business (BS, Summa Cum Laude, graduated as valedictorian) and Columbia Teachers College (MA). Prior to returning to Toronto, Daniella worked as a technology teacher and integrator at the International Baccalaureate Dwight School in Manhattan. Daniella participated in the Joshua Institute for Jewish Communal Leadership and completed an observership on UJA's Social Services and Seniors Committee. Daniella has chaired numerous events for local organizations, including Chai Lifeline, Emunah and Kayla's Children's Center. In her free time, she offers sleep training consulting, including a blog, to friends and strangers alike. Daniella is currently president of the Board and co-chaired Netivot's most recent Strategic Plan. Daniella is married to Seth Greenspan. They have 4 children in Netivot: William (Grade 5), James (Grade 3), Sophie (SK) and Jude (pre-nursery).

BIOS

Moshe Grunfeld

Moshe and his wife Anna (a sign language interpreter) are the proud parents of two, Amalia (Grade 7) and Hilly (Grade 3), and are members of BAYT. Moshe is currently Senior Legal Counsel at Peoples Group, a financial institution specializing in payments and FinTech. He previously worked in the federal government and private practice with a focus on competition/antitrust and foreign investment law. A Thornhill native, Moshe attended Netivot briefly, graduated from Eitz Chaim, and studied at various Yeshivos in Canada and the US. He holds a BA in Political Science and Business from Yeshiva University and a JD from the University of Ottawa's Faculty of Law. While living in Ottawa, Moshe was a trustee of Torah Academy of Ottawa, served on the merger committee that saw its successful combination with Rambam Day School, and subsequently served as a director of the combined school, Torah Day School of Ottawa. Moshe has also volunteered for BAYT, Congregation Beit Tikvah of Ottawa, Chai Lifeline Canada, and the Ottawa Eruv.

Sara Gutenberg

Sara and her husband, Josh, have 4 children : Netanel (Netivot, Grade 5), Esti (Netivot, Grade 2), Yehuda (Netivot, JK) and Yonatan. They live in Thornhill and are members of the BAYT. Sara grew up in Montreal. She spent a year at Midreshet Lindenbaum in Israel, following which she continued her studies at Yeshiva University in New York. She holds a B.A. in Jewish Studies from Stern College, and an M.A. in Bible from Bernard Revel Graduate School. After moving to Toronto, she earned her J.D. from University of Toronto, Faculty of Law. She currently works as in-house legal counsel and privacy officer for the Heart & Stroke Foundation.

Aimee Hass

Aimee holds a B.Sc. from York University and an LL.B. from Osgoode Hall Law School. Since 2004, Aimee has worked at KPMG LLP, in Toronto and in Tel Aviv, specializing in Mergers and Acquisition Tax with a focus on inbound investments into Canada and cross-border restructurings. Aimee is married to Jonny Hass and is a mother to 4 children: Ella (13) Jacob (11) Wolfie (9) and Leo (7) – three of which are proud Netivot students, and one is a proud Netivot graduate! Aimee has served on the Board of Directors of Netivot for the last ten years, and on the Executive, as past Treasurer and more recently as Vice President. Aimee is involved with, and has chaired numerous events for other organizations in Toronto, including for Emunah Women and Camp Moshava Ennismore.

BIOS

Jennie Kellerstein

Jennie and her husband Jeremy are proud parents to three current Netivot students and 1 graduate: Coby (grade 9), Shira (grade 7), Adina (grade 5) and Leah (grade 1). They are active members of Shaarei Shomayim Congregation. Jennie grew up in Kitchener-Waterloo, Ontario and obtained her Honours Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Toronto. She spent a year at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem on a Study Abroad program. She completed her graduate degree also at the University of Toronto and is a registered Psychologist. Jennie has worked at the Toronto District School Board for the past 14 years, providing psychological assessments, counseling, and consultations for students, parents and teachers.

Adir Koschitzky

Adir founded AYAL Capital in 2013 and is the firm's Portfolio Manager. Prior to starting the firm, Adir was an investment analyst at Waratah Capital Advisors in Toronto and with JL Advisors LLC in New York. Adir holds a Master of Business Administration from the Richard Ivey School of Business as well as a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics from Yeshiva University. Prior to receiving his education, Adir served as a tank crew member in the IDF Armored Corps. He is the former Treasurer of Netivot Hatorah, and is on the board of Leket Canada and UJA's Israel and Overseas Committee. He and his wife Elianne have three children.

Michael Lipson

Michael is a Director in the Investment Banking group at Bank of America Merrill Lynch. In his role, Michael is responsible for the origination and execution of mergers & acquisitions and financing transactions across the healthcare and technology sectors for the firm's Canadian clients. Prior to joining Bank of America, Michael spent six years at Scotiabank and three years at National Bank Financial where he advised clients on a variety of transactions. Michael holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Economics from York University. He is a member of the current cohort of UJA's Joshua Institute Future Leaders Program and a former UJA Bay Street Cabinet Co-chair. Michael lives in Toronto with his wife and four children, all of which are current Netivot students.

Rena Markus

Rena graduated from Netivot (class of '92) and Ulpanat Orot. She holds a Bachelors of Education, Masters of Education and Principal's Qualification from the Ontario Institute of Studies in Education (OISE) at the University of Toronto. Rena has worked as a teacher at the Paul Penna Downtown Jewish Day School for over 15 years and has been Vice-Principal for the past 5 years. She has served on various committees at Netivot, co-chairing the most recent Head of School search. She currently serves as the chair of the Board. Rena is married to Ira Markus and is the proud parent of Netivot graduates Avi and Joshua, and Netivot student Rebekah (grade 5).

BIOS

Didi Rosenzweig

Didi and her husband, Shragee, are proud parents of five netivot children ranging from grade 5 to nursery. Didi has played an active role for the PA since her first year and served as PA president for the last two years. Outside of netivot, Didi volunteers for Clanton Park Shul. Didi also works full-time as the head of Human Resources at Europro, a toronto-based commercial real estate company. Outside of volunteering and working, Didi is always running to and from extra curricular activities for her children

Rayna Rosenzweig

Rayna Rosenzweig, married to Ezra Rosenzweig. Mother and parent at Netivot Hatorah for 6 years. Rayna's children are Harper (Grade 2), Grace (Grade 1), Kate (SK south), and David (Nursery south) Rayna was born and raised in New York City. She attended Manhattan Day school, (Elementary school) Yeshiva university high school, Midreshet Lindenbaum for her year in Israel and she graduated From the Sy Syms school of business with a Bachelors degree in general Business Studies. Rayna has been living in Toronto for 11 years and she along with her husband have taken many active roles in the Toronto community. Rayna has been on the development committee at Netivot for two years, she is a founder of Baycrest at home, chaired multiple JACS events and part of the Canadian friends of Shalvah gala dinner committee. She is a current board member of United Hatzalah Israel in Canada. Although playing a role in the community has always been her passion, Rayna has dedicated her life to her family, home, and children. Rayna has the utmost respect for the entire faculty and staff at Netivot and being able to help further the success of Netivot Hatorah is of the utmost importance to both her and Ezra.

Rebecca Salmon

Rebecca, a Netivot graduate, and her husband Yossi, are the proud parents of three children: Nediva (entering grade 8) Maayan (entering grade 5) and Talia (entering grade 2). Rebecca is a member of the Community Engagement Committee, was a co-chair of the Netivot Lottery in 2021, co- chair of the Day of Giving in 2020 and has served on Netivot's Nominations Committee. Rebecca obtained a Honours BA from York University and her Masters in Occupational Therapy from University of Toronto. She owns and operates RS Floral Design. Rebecca is part of the Bnei Akiva Parents Committee and together with Yossi are active members in Clanton Park Synagogue.

BIOS

Noah Turk

Noah and his wife Shira are the proud parents of 4 Netivot children: Talia (Grade 7), Naomi (Grade 3), Ayla (Grade 1) and Nathaniel (JK). Noah graduated from Netivot HaTorah in 2001 and continued his high school studies at Or Chaim. After spending time at Yeshivat HaKotel, Noah attended York University (HBSc), Nova Southeastern University College of Dental Medicine (DMD) and was the chief resident in his Pediatric Residency at Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital. It was during this time that he also earned a Master in Science focused on treating those children with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Upon returning to Toronto in 2017, Noah began working as an associate pediatric dentist and in 2019 opened the doors to his first practice. Today, Dr. Noah owns and manages several clinics, treating children from all over southern (and even northern) Ontario. Noah successfully co-chaired the Netivot Lottery in 2022 and currently sits on the schools Development Committee.

Adam Zarek

Adam and his wife Yudit are parents to 4 kids: Reena (Grade 3), Adina (Grade 1), Ezra (Nursery), and Isaac. He is a Thornhill native and graduate of Associated and CHAT. He obtained a BAsC in Computer Engineering and a MS in Computer Science from the University of Toronto. He's been working as a Software Engineer at Google Canada for the past 10 years leading a variety of projects. The Zareks live in Thornhill and are members of the BAYT.